Prove your status

If you need to prove your immigration status to someone, you can do this online with a share code.

What you can do in the UK

As a student you can:

- study - with your licensed sponsor, subject to Academic Technology Approval Scheme \(ATAS\) conditions (<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/academic-technology-approval-scheme>)
- use the National Health Service (NHS) in a similar way to permanent UK residents
- rent somewhere to live
- access a current account with a bank or building society in the UK
- travel in and out of the country if you can provide a valid passport or travel document - you may not be able to enter the UK without one

Read further guidance on what you can do as a student in the UK. (<https://www.gov.uk/student-visa>)

Working in the UK

While your visa is valid

You can:

- work up to 20 hours a week during term time
- work full-time during periods outside of term time

You must share proof of your term dates with your employer.

Work placement

You can also work on a placement which is part of the course your student visa is based on. The work placement must be:

- a compulsory part of your course
- assessed as part of your course

Things you cannot do

You cannot:

- access public funds
(<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/public-funds--2/public-funds>)
- study at an academy or state school
- work as a professional sportsperson or coach
- work as an entertainer
- work in a position which would fill a permanent full-time vacancy unless you apply for a Skilled Worker or Graduate visa
- run a business or be self-employed unless you have applied for a Start-up visa

Continuous Absence

If you remain outside the UK for a continuous period of more than 2 years, your permission will normally lapse if it has not yet expired and you will have to apply for a new visa.

Legal basis of status

You have been granted permission to enter or stay in the UK, (also known as Leave to enter or remain) until 31 May 2025.

National Insurance number

You will need to obtain a National Insurance number if you plan to work in the UK. If you have one already, it will show at the top of your immigration status profile. If you do not have a National Insurance number, you must apply for one. You can start work while you are waiting for a National Insurance number if you can prove your right to work to your employer. If it has been more than 8 weeks since you applied for a National Insurance number, call the application helpline.

If your personal details change

You must tell us about any changes to your personal details, such as your name or nationality. You should also tell us if your sign-in or travel document details change, so that you can continue to access your information online.

You can use this service \(https://update-your-details.homeoffice.gov.uk\) to tell us about changes to your

- email address
- phone number
- home address
- passport or travel document details, including change of name or nationality
